Galatians
Chapter 6

The entrance of thy words giveth light
Ps. 119:130

6:1- People are quick to point out some ones faults or sins.

- Mt. 7:1-5

- Restore such an one in the Spirit of meekness, humility.

6:1- Consider thyself

– Be careful helping some one out that you don't get tempted with the same sin.

- It might be 2 or 3 months later when your tempted.

- Gal. 6:3 - Don't think your some big shot and you can handle the sin.

6:1- Restore

- Remember Galatians is written to counter act legalism.

- You have to do something to stay saved.

- Legalism always adds to the problem.

- Act 15:10 - Add a yoke

- Mt. 23:4

6:2- Bear ye one another's burdens

- Husbands - bear your wives burdens in prayer

- Wives - same

- Pastor & Church - same

- Do this and you will fulfill the law of Christ.

- Did you ever hear Jesus say bear one another's burdens.

- Jh. 13:34 - Love ye one another. - The Law of Christ

- Jh. 15:12 - Love one another as I have loved you.

- Not in word but in deed - Talk is cheap

- Mt. 18:15-17

  1- Him alone - Spirit of meekess

- 1Cor. 8:2

- 1Cor. 10:12

6:4- Prove his own work

- Test it and try it out.

6:4- Rejoicing in himself

- Go get your own shout

- God make your own stories

- If you don't have anything to shout about at home during the week you won't have any shout at church.

- If you don't like the way this church is run

- Start your own.

- Prove your own work

- Rejoice in what the Lord has done through you.

- Some people think

- If it wasn't for me nobody would ever get saved.

- Victories - Go get your own

- ILL - Flea on the back of an elephant walked across a bridge and said

- We sure are making this bridge shake.

6:5- 6:2

- There are some burdens nobody can bear but you.

- When nobody can help you bear it yourself.
