Mt., Mk., Lk., are called synoptic gospels.

- Scholars have segregated the gospel of John to make you think there is something wrong with John.

- Mt. Mk. Lk. are about the humanity of Christ.

- John is about the Deity of Christ.

- Mt.- 28 chp., 1071 vs., 23,684 words

- Most scholars say it was written somewhere around 66 AD

- Dr. Ruckman thinks it was written somewhere between 37 - 45 AD

- John writes about the Son of God, God doesn't have a genealogy so John has no genealogy in it.

- Luke wrote about the Son of Man. Men have genealogies so so Luke goes all the way back to Adam. Adam was the first man.

- Mark writes about Christ as a servant, Servants or slaves have no genealogies so Mark has no genealogies.

- Matthew writes about Jesus Christ as a King. So the geneaology goes back to the first king and traces the crown through to Abraham who is the first Jew.

- Abrahams great, great grandpa is Noah.

- Noah was a gentile.

- Out of the gentiles come Shem- the shemites, semites

- Gen. 10:21- 25- Eber is the first Hebrew

- Abraham was a Hebrew

- Gen. 14:13- ...Abram the Hebrew;

- They all come from Shem - a Shemite or Semitic

  - Anti Semitic - against orientals

- Abraham is circumcised at 90 and given the covenant of Circumcision.

- Abraham is called out from all the people on earth.

- Abraham - Isaac- Jacob- 12 tribes.

- Judah and Benjimen are called Jews by Paul.

- Rom. 3:2 - The oracles of God are given to the Jews.

- Abraham is the father of the Jewish race.

- Jewish race starts with Abraham not Judah or Jacob.

Mt. 1:1 takes you to Abraham not Adam because Adam is a not a Jew.

- Noah is not a Jew - Abraham is.

Mt. 1:1- Book of gereration

- Occurs only 2 times in the Bible and it is significant.

- Gen. 5:1- This is the book of the generations of Adam.

- Many places it may say these are the generations of but it only says book of generations twice.

- #5- 5 is the number of death, not grace

- Gen 5 everybody dies, every 3 verses it says: and he died

- Rom 5:14- Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses

- 1Cor. 15:22- For as in Adam all die,

  - 3x5=15

- In Gen. 5 all die, Everybody in Adam all die.

- Mt. 1- In Matthew chapter one nobody dies.

- 1Cor. 15:22- ...even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

- That is the unsearchable riches of the Elizabethan English of the King James Bible.

- 2 times this occurs

  - 1- Adam Genealogy all die

  - 2- Christ Genealogy all live, nobody dies

- Another interresting fact about the New Testament is it doesn't mentions anybodies sins.

- The list in Mt. 1 is a list of reprobates.

- There is no Godly line in the Bible

- There is a Messianic line. that goes to the messiah.

Mt. 1:3- Thamar- is Judas's daughter in-law- Incest

Mt. 1:5- Rachab- harlot

Mt. 1:6- David - sleeps with a man wife and then kills him.

2:18-19- God is straight to the point

- You need to remember this also God will be just as straight to the point with your account.

2:22- He was afraid, because like father like son.

- God warned him so he went north instead of Judea and Bethlehem.

2:23- Nazarene not Nazarite

- A nazarene is someone from Nazareth.

- Num. 6 is a Nazarite.

Mt. 1:8- Joram is apostate and God takes out 3 generations for associating with Ahab.

- There is no Godly line

- There is a messianic line from Adam to the Messiah, but it's not godly.

- You have to be careful about people who keep saying Godly He's so Godly

- There was a man who came from God - Me

Mt. 1:1- son

- A son could be your son, or grandson or great grandson or even farther down the line, son-in-law, or adopted son.

- As long as he is in the genealogy he is your son.

Mt. 1:2- Judas - Judah

- All the new bibles change the names to match the OT names.

- That's called fudging

- When translating Hebrew to English and Greek to English it's not the same spelling.

- From Greek to English it's spelled - Judas

- From Hebrew to English its spelled - Judah

- The King James is always right and all others is wrong.

Mt. 1:6- David the King

- Nobody is called King until David.

- David is the first official King of Israel that God approved of.

- Saul was allowed to be king by the permissive will of God.

- The King that God wanted was from Juda.

- Gen. 49:10- The sceptre shall not depart form Juda.

    - The first king is David.

Matthew will present Christ as a King.

- And as a Jewish king he is the son of David the King

- Notice the use of the word King

- 2:1- ...Herod the king

- 2:2- ... King of the Jews?

- 2:3- ...Herod the king

Mt. 1:6- KJB- Italics

- Their needed to make sense.

- Greek text said: And Jesse begat David the King. and David the king begat Solomon of her Urias;

- It almost sounds like in the greek that Urias is her.

- Urias is a male.

- You need the italics to make it better english.

- This is a great lesson to learn in Manuscript evidence.

- Good greek doesn't always make good english.

- The next book is called Exodus

    - Were leaving

- Ecclesiates - A called out assembly

- Israel is called out

- Jacob wanted to be taken out.

- Joseph- take my bones with you.

- Joseph is a type of Christ in 152 particulars.

- Since Joseph said take my bones out of Egypt that means there is not one bone of Jesus Christ on earth.

- Christ bones left in the Resurrection and our bones will leave also.

- In the Rapture nothing will be left behind.

- God thinks so little of this world he wont let the bones of his dead people live here.

- Gen. 50:26- He was put in a coffin in Egypt.

- The beginning of all life on earth ends up in a coffin in Egypt.

- What do you do with this verse when you can't add or subtract from the scriptures.

- 2 Pet. 1:21- ...but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

- When your translating into another language you have to pray and seek Gods guidance.

- Going from one language to another your going to have to trust God to give you the words to use.

- The King James translators admitted it's not in the text by putting it in italics.

- All false bibles print the italicized words as normal so you don't know what they have added.
